It was so nice to join together and sit in Restorative Justice circles on Family Night. We look forward to offering more opportunities for the Edgemont community to sit circle. Based on your questions and comments from Family Night this newsletter now reflects what we are doing in our weekly circles.

Team Building Game: Hot Seat

Check in questions of the week: How are you and what are you excited about? If how you were feeling right now was a season, what season would you be?

Activity/Discussion: Do you feel connected to the work we are doing in RJ? What does the work mean to you? (Non-judgement) Have you ever been judged? What happened and how did it feel?

Check Out: Song: Lean on Me

Restorative Justice (RJ) is an indigenous philosophy that emphasizes building relationships. If there is a need to repair harm caused by conflict and wrongdoing, restorative justice provides an opportunity for everyone impacted by an incident to come together in a safe space to address their feelings and needs, and reach a resolution that heals and restores relationships.
