Course Syllabus

Department: World Languages
Course: Latin III
Level: Honors
Credits: 5

Course Description:
This course continues to concentrate on the more advanced grammar concepts of the language presenting the subjunctive mood in its entirety. Culture and history continue to be an integral part of the course.

Standards:
NJCCCS: 7.1

Anchor Text(s):
Latin for the New Millennium Level 2

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Text Title</th>
<th>Publisher/Author</th>
<th>Year/Edition</th>
<th>ISBN</th>
<th>Text Distribution</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Latin for the New Millennium Level 2</td>
<td>Bolchazy-Carducci Publishers, Inc.</td>
<td>1st</td>
<td>978-0-86516-563-2</td>
<td>Hard copy &amp; online text available</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Supplementary Materials:
Students continue to give more in-depth oral and written presentations dealing with Roman Mythology, customs, culture, history, and literary figures.

Units of Study:
- Participles
- Infinitives and Indirect Statements
- Subjunctive Mood and Subordinate Clauses
- Readings from Bede, Petrarch, Abelard and Heloise, among others.

Proficiencies:
By the end of this course, students will:
- Comprehend advanced grammatical concepts and apply them in translations
- Translate primary reading passages from ancient authors
- Increase vocabulary and grammar skills which result in better English skills

Evaluation & Assessment:
- Category 60%
- Category 40%