Montclair High School
Course Syllabus

Department: Social Studies
Course: United States History 1 CGI
Level: Honors/High Honors
Credits: 5

Course Description:
As part of its purpose, the Civics & Government Institute strives to help the student realize his/her potential. As a means to that end, all English and Social Studies coursework may be achieved by the student at either Honors or High Honors level. Units within the course syllabi of CGI are thematic and interdisciplinary and are taught in a heterogeneous classroom setting. Throughout the coursework, the student should develop an appreciation for the pluralistic nature of American society and an awareness of the roles of women, African-Americans and other social/ethnic minorities in its history. The Social Studies curriculum reflects the knowledge, skills, attitudes and social participation to prepare students for their roles in the 21st Century.

Standards:

War & Conflict: The purpose of this unit is to engage the students in the understanding of the causes of war and those conflicts that are particular to the development of United States’ History

Proficiencies:
By the end of this course, students will:
• Describe reasons for going to war and evaluate other alternatives that may have been taken to avoid wars in US history.
• Discuss how relationships among native peoples and Europeans differed from nation to nation and offer explanations for these differences.
• Identify key leaders in the settlement and development of British/American colonies and describe the unique characteristics in the development and cultures of each of the original thirteen colonies.
• Discuss reform actions that occurred during the colonial period and their significance to the development of American culture.
• Analyze antebellum reform movements in terms of their origins, actions and impact on American society.
• Evaluate the major events and accomplishments of the Labor Movement, Struggle for Equality, Civil Rights, Women’s Movement, and other reform movements in American History.
• Explain how Americans, despite enormous disadvantages, managed to defeat the British and gain Independence.
• Understand the events that led to America’s Second War for Independence and the emergence of the US as a world power as a result of the war.
• Identify the reasons for westward expansion and its role in the war with Mexico.
• Critically evaluate the Civil War from many different perspectives: the final violent phase in a conflict between two regional subcultures, a breakdown of a democratic political system, the climax of several decades of social reform & as a pivotal chapter in US racial history –the legacy of such a war will makes outcomes more important than causes.
• Compare the policy of Manifest Destiny to late 19th Century Imperialism and Globalization.
• Identify the world situation at the time of the outbreak of WWI and assess the reasons for the US becoming involved in the conflict.
• Evaluate the causes and assess the impact of WWII.
• Discuss how the US adopts the new role of peacetime leader in post-war world.
• Understand Cold War policies, conflicts & client wars (i.e. Berlin, Cuba, Korea, Vietnam, Arab-Israeli Wars, Afghanistan.)
• Evaluate the Persian Gulf War and the resulting “New World Order”
